Now, Rahul is on Pad Yatra

New Delhi, Congress vice president Rahul Gandhi is all set to embark on a nationwide Kisan Padyatra on the lines of the one he undertook to Bhatta Parsaul in UP when the Congress led UPA was in power.

The march, expected to begin within the next week to ten days (while the Parliament is still in session), seeks to position the Congress alongside farmers as part of the party's long term political revival strategy against the BJP.

Top sources in the Congress said the yatra would likely begin from Vidharbha in Maharashtra and would immediately after concentrate on the farm distressed areas of Telangana, Uttar Pradesh and Rajasthan in the first phase. Gradually Rahul will travel to affected areas in other states as well.

During his journeys, Rahul Gandhi plans to walk 15 to 18 kms a day to engage farmers on issues of the Government's land ordinance, low MSP for produce and large scale suicides by farmers have been reported. The idea is to share the pain of farmers and get the first hand information of the problems they are facing. The schedule of Rahul's Padyatra could be announced within the next few days," said a Congress leader in the know of Rahul's future political plan.

The yatra, sources said, would be an extension of Rahul Gandhi's travel to Bhatta Parsaul in UP some years ago when he joined the farmers to protest forcible land acquisition by the then Mayawati led BSP government in the state. The visit had become the starting point for poor procurement of stocks leading to mass suicides by farmers across the country. "Rahul Gandhi will initially visit areas where UPA's land acquisition law which the Modi Government has tweaked to bring the new land ordinance, which the Congress is opposing inside and outside Parliament.

Rahul recently attacked the Centre on the ordinance in Lok Sabha. Before that he and Congress President Sonia Gandhi had launched a massive political offensive against the PM by accusing the Government of pursuing anti farmer policies. Projecting the BJP as anti farmer is integral to Congress's revival plan, which Rahul Gandhi will lead, his Kisan Padyatra being the starting point to connect to the masses who had deserted the Congress in Lok Sabha elections last May.

The Kisan Padyatra of Rahul is being described in Congress circles as the mass connect drives former PM Indira Gandhi had launched post Emergency. She had returned to power. Sonia had similarly launched nationwide travel when she returned from the cold in 1998 to become Congress President after years of hiatus since her husband With the Congress set for an organizational revamp, its vice-president Rahul Gandhi's core team is also undergoing silent changes.

Kanishka Singh, Gandhi's aide for more than a decade, is now devoting time in managing his sister Priyanka Vadra's office as well. Oxford University graduate Kaushal Vidyarthi is seen as an important manager of Gandhi's office. Vidyarthi, who is in his early thirties, studied urban planning but later associated himself with the women self-help group movement in Uttar Pradesh. His main job is to manage appointments and prepare background notes and papers for Gandhi.

Kanishka, at times, is the go-between for media but the Congress communication cell, headed by Ajay Maken, remains the official communication channel.

Gandhi maintains a small office with 6-7 staff, all young. The office has a corporate style of functioning and appointments to Gandhi are given only on the basis of written requests. "Compiling reports from party sources is another major task," said a source. The team also gives Gandhi major talking points ahead of his public meetings. "Finally, it is Gandhi who decides the subject on which he wants to speak after consulting many people, including sister Priyanka," said a source.

As the leader has decided to become more active in Lok Sabha, his team has the task of preparing notes on the "right" subjects.

Priyanka maintains an even smaller office which mostly deals with issues of Rae Bareilly, her mother's constituency, and Rajiv Gandhi Foundation apart from her engagements. "She also has developed an interest in tracking Congress' campaign, especially the social media propaganda," said a source.

Baby Song

Baby Beluga in the deep blue sea,
Swim so wild and you swim so free.
Heaven above, and the sea below,
And a little white whale on the go.

Baby beluga, baby Beluga, is the water warm?
Is your mama home with you, so happy.

Way down yonder where the dolphins play,
Where they dive and splash all day,
The waves roll in and the waves roll out,
See the water squirting out of your spout.

Baby beluga, baby Beluga, sing your little song,
Sing for all your friends, we like to hear you.

When it's dark, you're home and fed,
Curl up snug in your water bed.
Moon is shining and the stars are out,
Good night, little whale, goodnight.

Baby beluga, baby Beluga, with tomorrow's sun,
Another day's begun, you'll soon be waking.

Baby Beluga in the deep blue sea,
Swim so wild and you swim so free.
Heaven above and the sea below,
And a little white whale on the go.
You're just a little white whale on the go.

Samarth a gifted singer

Samarth may be a gifted singer, but he has earned his name through rigorous 'Riyaz'(Practice). He eats Music, he drinks Music and he always thinks Music. 'Tanpura' at his home sounds all the time. His Guru Late Pandit Chauth Mal Makhan, while giving him basic tips, always encouraged Samarth for original thinking that is 'Upaj ka Gana'... Samarth followed his instructions by heart..His melodious singing is always 'Bhav Poorna' (blending emotions).. Once, Padmabhushan Pandit Jasraj ji, under whom Samarth is refining and improving his singing, said that 'Makhan ji ne Samarth ke gale mein Makhan Daal diya'.

Samarth's singing comes from his heart before throat. His deep study and thoughts make his singing deep at same time melodious. Touching all the three Octaves comes to him naturally. His understanding the Ragas and Bandishs make him outstanding Classical vocalist. His command on Allap and Taans make listeners spellbound. Samarth 's singing sways away listeners with the contents whether it is serious rendering of Raag, Bhajan, Sufi or Light music melodies.

With a deep sense of Hindustani Classical music, he can jam with Carnatic, Folk as well as Western Music. With this quality, Samarth can compose music for different Moods and situations. Many senior and even the young listeners who attend Samarth's vocal concerts strongly feel divine during his singing. The ultimate results of his concerts are to make people enjoy 'Shant Ras' (Peace through Music). This is visible in the Recorded songs composed and sung by Him for Albums like 'Prabhu Stuti' written by Poet Pramod Sanadya (Nathadwara) and 'Nirmal Neer Ganga Ka' by Poet Abdul Jabbar (Chittorgarh).

At present, Samarth is a visiting faculty of Music in Mohanlal Sukhadia University Music Department. Samarth has also got Junior Fellowship from Ministry of Culture, Government of India for his innovative study work of introducing listening of Classical Music for reducing stress and enhancing concentrations amongst Senior School students.

Whatever Samarth gets from his Guru, he is eager to transform further to his disciples. He has the opinion that music comes from nature and has the strength to make us Natural.
