PM to visit Facebook headquarters

New Delhi : Prime Minister Narendra Modi will visit Facebook's headquarters in California for a Town hall question and answer session on September 27.

During the visit, Modi and Zuckerberg will discuss how communities can work together to address social and economic challenges.

In a post on the social media platform, Prime Minister Narendra Modi urged people to send in their questions for the session on Prime Minister's mobile app.

The live video of the session will be available on Zuckerberg's Facebook page and also on Prime Minister Modi's official page in the social media website.

India has the largest Facebook user-base outside the US. In June, the company had said 125 million users of its global base of 1.44 billion come from India.

Last year, Zuckerberg had made his maiden trip to India and discussed with Prime Minister Narendra Modi digital expansion in the country.

Career Selection for Success by Balancing Heart and Mind: Dr. Singh

Udaipur : Right career selection is the first step towards success. We are confused in our selection because mind says something but heart says something else. One must learn the art of synchronization of heart and mind for optimal output to achieve grand success. With proper techniques and right questioning person can explore the hidden true inner voice of conscience and can achieve peak performance.

These thoughts and proper methodology was discussed in length in a career guidance workshop organized for student of Rajkiya Vishisht Madhyamic Vidyalaya. The workshop was organized by Rotary Club Elite and founder of Seven Effective Thinking Patterns (SETP), Dr. Arvinder Singh.

Students were enthused, motivated and benefited by introduction of this thinking SETP tool. They actively participated in workshop in form of interactive question and answer sessions and filling worksheets. Pedagogy of Digital presentation, videos and thought provoking questionnaire was used to make them hear the inner voice. The main objective was that students must not choose the career by imitation or whims and fancies. Rather career selection must be in line with interest, aptitude and attitude.

Club president Manish Galundia, Club secretary Ramesh Modi encouraged the students & distributed awards. Past president Puneet Saxena, Principal of School Mrs. Rekha Chouhan, Faculty Mr. Mahendra and assistant manager Ms. Meenakshi Kumawat were present in session.

Ex-Bihar CM Manjhi's son detained with Rs. 4.65 lakh cash

Jehanabad (Bihar) : In a major embarrassment for ex-Chief Minister Jitan Ram Manjhi ahead of the Bihar polls, his son Praveen Kumar was today detained by the police after he was allegedly found carrying Rs 4.65 lakh in cash in a car.

During routine checking of vehicles, the police intercepted a car at Gaya-Jehanabad check post near Umta village and seized Rs 4.65 lakh in cash from Manjhi's son Praveen Kumar who was on his way to Patna from Gaya, Sub-Divisional Police Officer Md. Ashfaq Ansari said.

Kumar was detained and taken to Makdumpur police station for questioning after he failed to give a satisfactory reply about the purpose for carrying the cash, he said.

Senior police and civil officials have gone to Makdumpur police station to question Kumar, Ansari said. Manjhi, the former Chief Minister, who is also the president of Hindustani Awam Morcha (Secular), is in New Delhi for seat-sharing talks with the BJP. The five-phase Bihar Assembly election will begin from October 12 and counting of votes will take place on November 8.

Paryushan Mahaparva Celebrated in with great enthusiasm

Udaipur : Paryushan Mahaparva has been celebrated with great enthusiasm in the auspicious presence of eminent Jainacharyas and muni deep kumar, muni sudhkar, rakesh kumar ji in world famous tourist destination Udaipur. People gather not only to listen to pravachan but also take part in Tapasya.

Looking at the inclination of youth towards dhyana, yoga, spiritual pravachan and tapasya in a modern country Rakesh Muni said that people's devotion towards Indian Culture based on sacrifice and self control proves that materialistic development can provide resources for happiness but not internal peace. For internal peace the only option is following the spiritual path. Adapting the Bhagwan Mahavir lifestyle based on self control people can live healthy, happy and joyful life.

Rajkumar Fattawat said that Paryushan Mahaparva is a special festival of self purification and Spiritual Worship. On this sacred occasion we can make effort to achieve spiritual growth by making our spirit free from worldly deeds.
