

West Zone Cultural Centre, Udaipur in collaboration with Sangeet Natak Akademy, Gujarat and Diu Administration Organized a 3 days cultural bonanza called 'Aranya Parv' from September 9 to 11, 2015. 'Aranya Parv' is aimed at showcasing Tribal and Folk dances of Gujarat, Maharashtra, Rajasthan and Goa to the masses.

This colourful festival was inaugurated by Honourable Governor of Rajasthan, Shri Kalyan Singh, who is also Chairman of West Zone Cultural Centre, Udaipur. Ground adjacent to Bal Bhavan, Vanakbara, a village of Diu wore a festive look in the evening of 9 September. In all 121 Tribal and Folk artists of Rajasthan, Gujarat, Maharashtra and Goa (Member states of WZCC) exhibited their talent during their spectacular performances.

Bheel tribal artists of Mewar region of Rajasthan presented episode of 'Win of Devi Ambav on devil Bhiyanval' during 'Gavari'. Vasava tribal youth of Narmada district of Gujarat presented most vibrant 'Vasava Holi Nrutya' performed during Holi festival. Katakari, Mahadev Koli, Kokana and Varli tribe youth of Palghar, Maharashtra presented most colourful Mask dance 'Bohada' which is performed in nearby villages during Holi as ritual. People were surprised to watch big size masks of Ganesh, Narsingh,

Aarnya Parva : Enthralls

Raktamata, Maruti and even Ravan and Gajaur on stage. 'Saharia Swang' by Saharia tribe dwelling in Shahabad Taluka, Baran (Rajasthan) became centre of attraction. Artists not only entertained with painted body and faces but also introduced 'Dhoom Dhadak' a peculiar percussion instrument.

'Dhangari Gaza' dance performed by Dhangar (Shepherd community) of Kohlapur, Maharashtra was an audio visual treat. Artists of Goa presented 'Ghode Modeni' by putting effigies of horses and show casing of Veer Ras. Another group from Goa presented 'Samai (lamp) dance by making various intricate compositions balancing burning lamps on their heads. 'Sidi Dhamal' most popular dance by the Sidi community of Gujarat stole the show. The spectators were engrossed in watching wonderful performances of their own soil as most of them never had such experience to watch so many varied dance forms together.

The Chief Guest blessed all the artists and congratulated WZCC team for organizing such thematic festivals. Shri. M. Furqan Khan, Director, WZCC welcomed the Chief guest and threw light on significance of 'Aranya Parv'. Shri Vikram Singh Malik, Collector, Diu, Shri Ajay Ambekar, Director, Cultural Affairs, Maharashtra, Shri Mahendra Kadia, noted painter from Gujarat, Shri Premjeet Baria, Director Bal Bhavan, Diu graced the festival with a huge gathering. 'Aranya Parv' travelled further and enthralled masses at Kodinar and Veraval on September joined this prestigious event as an anchor and observed that our folk and tribal dances have tremendous strength. They not only entertain people but also educate them the rich cultural heritage of our country.

Vilas Janve

UIT provided 25 walkie-talkie

Udaipur : UIT, municipal officials, including the head of the five departments were equipped with walkie-talkie. They will be connected directly to the collector. The department will continue to monitor the collector. UIT 25 walkie-talkie these officers are made available to all departments. This new arrangement has not been included in the police and administration. The five government departments to connect the system is the first in the city. The department is directly attached to the public department. It will have a set of collector and they will monitor. The system is designed to operate wireless base station. The half lakh rupees would be spent. A collector connected to the public about the work officers do not need to call separately. Officers will be able to exchange information among themselves less. Walkie talkie work in the range of 10 km from the base center. These officers will join together: Collector, UIT Secretary, OSD, land officer accession, SE, all ex en, Senior Town Planner, deputy town planner, officer, municipal commissioner, electricity department, PWD and Water Resource Department's ex en.

Take care of your body

Udaipur : To spread the awareness about Personal Hygiene, School has conducted a speech competition on Personal Hygiene. Students came with different props like tooth pastes, soaps, toilet cleaners etc. & they were very excited to participate. Each and every student has taken part and tries to cover all aspects of hygiene and how it should be implemented in our day to day schedule in such a manner that it should become a part of our routine. Judges have appreciated the awareness level of such a small ones.

Geographers to suggest measures to save lakes

Udaipur : Mohanlal Sukadiya University is working on saving the Aravalli and the lakes. The project is embarking on this current situation. From 17th to 19th October in an International Geographers Conference in the university, measures to always maintain safety of Aravalli and the lakes will be suggested. 500 geographer recommend local projects abroad. The purpose of this conference is to consider effective measures to local environmental and geographic issues. Earth between two Jatakar leaves the 10th International Conference of the map is designed logo. Logo means that the earth always create safe. University's geography department, local lakes, mountains, rivers will break even on the international stage through the conference.

No idol immersion in lakes

Udaipur : Udaipur Ganapati festival in the city of statues will be immersed in lakes. The statues will be bathed by the waters of the lakes. Festival organizer, leaving the statue by the lake shore waters will be played. Disposal of these statues will later municipal. The decision Tuesday by District Collector Rohit Gupta peace committee meeting was chaired. At the meeting, people had different ideas about statue immersion. Administration officials argue that the smart city is the responsibility of the title after all lakes are clean and Ganapati immersion will not affect the people's faith.

Aittal Khosla Crowned Miss Palaash 2015 in Glittering Finale

New Delhi : The six-month long hunt for India's next supermodel ended with a glittering and unforgettable event at the Kingdom of Dreams in Gurgaon on Wednesday with Chandigarh girl Ms. Aittal Khosla winning the coveted title of Miss Palaash 2015 in front of a packed audience.

The 19-year-old Aittal was chosen from among the 26 finalists who were short-listed after a 15-city audition held across the country earlier this year. The other winners of the evening were Ms. Niharika Dholua from Guwahati who was named first runner-up and Ms. Neha Dabar from Chandigarh who was selected as the second runner-up at the event. The winners were crowned by the beautiful Bollywood diva Mugdha Godse who shared the stage with the senior management of Panache Global Pvt Ltd, the parent company behind the Miss Palaash event.

Speaking to media post the announcement, Ms. Pallavee Sharma Chairperson and Managing Director of Panache Global Pvt. Ltd. said, "We are elated to announce the winners of our first edition of Miss Palaash. We have received tremendous response from the people for the event and we believe this is only going to grow in scale in the future. The idea behind the event was not only to honour the Indian women but also to encourage them in their various endeavours and talents. We believe in promoting social cause like Swach Bharat Abhiyaan by making our girls getting associated in the mission for a better India."

Praising the talented participants Bollywood actress and modeling superstar Mugdha Godse said, "I would like to congratulate the winners and all the participants who showed the determination and perseverance throughout the competition. It is a matter of delight that Indian women are becoming more confident and coming forward in all the avenues and do not deter or shy away in showcasing their talents."

Mr. Inderjeet Singh Soni, Executive Director, Panache Global Pvt. Ltd., "For us this has been one of the most overwhelming experiences. Throughout the event we were amazed to have come across such diverse forms of beauty and talent. We would like to congratulate the winners and hope that they treat this achievement as a stepping stone for future success. We worked in sync on the ideology of our Global Leader and Eminent Prime Minister Shree Narendra Modi Ji to promote Beti Bachao, Beti Padhao as we want to add a new definition and angle of Indian-ism to the word of Glamour and Fashion"

The evening was graced by the Master of Ceremonies, Mr. Aman Preet Wahi, Mr. Kaushik Ghosh, The Pageant Director along with the most renowned and eminent media personality & political analyst Dr. Suvro Kamal Dutta.

In addition to this, the event also saw the biggest names in fashion, cinema, business and politics come together to support the participants. Some of the noted attendees were Shree Gopal Krishna Agarwal (National Spoke's Person for BJP), Mrs. Ruby Yadav (Mrs. Universe West Asia 2015-16 & Mrs India Queen), Mr. Ayaan Rathi (Famous Indian model & international theatre actor), Mr. Sandeep Marwah (President of Asian academy of Film and Television & President of International Chamber of Media & Entertainment Industry), Mr. Amit Mishra (Indian team Cricketer), Ms. Anjana Kuthiala (Celebrity Painter), Ms. Babita Saxena (Chair Person Media & Entertainment Industry), Ms. Shalini Vig Wadhwa (Social Activist HOPE NGO & Judge), Ms. Bhawna Rajpal (Social & RTI Activist & Judge) and Mr. Pankaj Gupta (Chief Coordinator, IECEN Milano Represent Politecnico di Milano, Faculty for design in Milan, Designed clothes for Will Smith and Valentino).

Cheap, accessible and safe transport – 16 new routes approved

Udaipur : The Transport Department of the state government has approved of 16 new routes in Udaipur district in order to provide safe and efficient transport network for general public.

Regional Transport Officer Dr. Manna Lal Rawat informed that for few days, a survey was conducted in transport areas of Udaipur district to ascertain the possibility of providing business, social, education and road facilities to tribal and rural people living there.

He said that out of 61 routes being sent during the proposal, the state government has approved for 16 new routes that are: Som to Ambasa, Som to Rani, Kelwada to Dungarpur, Kelwada to Kotda, Gogunda to Kokhra, Gogunda to Panarwa, Jhadol to Ambasa, Gogunda to Jhadol, Jhadol to Kokhra, Jhadol to Panarwa, Jhadol to Serawada, Falasia to Serawada, Jhadol to Rani, Falasia to Kokhra, Kokhra to Baighatiya and Rani. RTO further added that with the opening of these routes, the rural lives will get access to safe, cheap and resourceful transport facilities.

Happiness is evident on the face after conquering cancer

Udaipur : Seeing the joy on the face, it cannot be said that they ever had cancer. By fighting a long battle with cancer today not only their lives, but are happy to lead the country with Delhi-based voluntary organization Cankids rally over the past four years, the car has become an inspiration to others out. Cankids institution together with GBH American Hospital of Udaipur Heritage AND GBH American Hospital today Rotary Club organized a workshop on cancer put together, in which 4-day car rally of cancer patients from Delhi reached Udaipur, in which cancer survivors 6 children and women participated.

The founder of the institution Chairman cancer survivor Poonam Bagai said that tiny children and especially girls joined him after the cancer to overcome superstition and myth, and parents and their children, especially the girl child cancer patient's cancer to sensitize them on not treat the institution young age have suffered the brunt of cancer in life twice Girls Child Ambassador of India, 24-year-old Ritu Bhalla said that when

Caesar should not be frustrated by life because of the nature of cancer treatment in time to meet the can surely be conquered. Ranging from 6 months to about 3 years cancer can be cured as long as it was the perfect time to treat the cancer hospital.

National Handicraft & Vocational Training Course begins

Udaipur : State Commissioner Dr Akhil Shukla said that the discipline and nationalism is a central aspect of Scouts and Guides, the service mentality of the person within and highlight the work is being done by the same organization.

These ideas were expressed by Dr Akhil Shukla at Udaipur where National Handicraft & Vocational Training Course began at Udaipur Niwas which was attended by chief guest State Commissioner Dr. Akhil Shukla. The Scouts participate in adventure activities to guide and inspire the struggle of life while living it inspires. The Scouts and Guides all the good and bad service are keen on the spot. The lease of life to blood donation stating essentially called for blood donation.

During the inaugural speech, he said that discipline and patriotism are the two main elements of scout-guide. He motivated the students to partake and fight in all situations and never give up. He also promoted the cause of blood donation among the present members.

Jitendra Kumar Upadhyay informed that scout-guides, range rovers and unit leaders of 19 states are participating in the event including West Bengal, Karnataka, J&K, Chattisgarh, Orissa, Goa, Himachal Pradesh, Maharashtra, Delhi, Madhya Pradesh, South Railway, Eastern Railway, N.F Railway, Western Railway, Central Railway etc. The members will be trained in rope making, electricity, candle making, 6 types of mural art, sculpture, water proof sari pin, thermocol painting, fabric painting, dori work, cards making, jute dolls, pots etc.

CPS excels at 60th District Level Sports

Udaipur : Central Public School's performance in various games held under the banner of 60th District Level Sports Competition organized by St. Anthony's School were outstanding. For the 8th time CPS won the basketball competition by defeating Guru Nanak School by 54-42 in under-19 category. In under-19 cricket competition, CPS stood second at city level. Also, in under-19 swimming competition, CPS' Bhavesh Sirvi stood third in 400m freestyle. Director Alka Sharma congratulated all the winners and participants.

Hindi Week organized at MMPS

Udaipur : Maharana Mewar Public School organized Hindi Week from 1st to 8th September. In junior and senior categories, different competitions including debate, extempore, poem recitation, essay writing, poem writing, storytelling and couplets antakshari were organized in which all the students participated. The students with the best performance were awarded with first, second and third prizes.