

RMV celebrates 100 years

Udaipur : Rajasthan Mahila Vidyalaya, better known as RMV is about to complete a centenary and the school is all set to celebrate the 100th year with great zeal. The principal Usharani Bhatnagar informed the media that in 1916, a teacher Pundit Vinayak Rao with a student kept the foundation of this school. And since then that sapling has taken a form of full fledged tree. She named all people who helped this grow and become a huge temple of education. RMV has a central hall in its premises where many educational and cultural programs are organized regularly. There is a sports field which sees scores of national and district level tournaments. Students of this school according to the principal are bright and keep winning many positions in various competitions. "Many social causes are also done here like education of elders, blood donation, and other social exhibitions," said Bhatnagar.

203 benefited in Heart Camp

Udaipur : Geetanjali Hospital with Late Shri Magniram Ji Agrawal Trust organized free heart camp on the eve of World Heart Day in which patients from Jhalor, Badmer, Jaisalmer, Sirohi, Pali and nearby areas were benefited. Interventional Cardiologist of Geetanjali Dr CP Purohit, Dr Harish Sanadhya and Dr Ramesh Patel, Cardio & Vascular surgeon Dr Sanjay Gandhi, Dr Ankur Gandhi & Dr Kalpesh Mistri of Anaesthesia Department, consultant anaesthetist Dr Mahmohan Jindal and consultant intensivist Dr Kamlesh Bhatt provided their services for free. Services such as ECO, angiography, bypass surgery, valve surgery, peripheral bypass, angioplasty and ASD and VSD were given at discounted prices.

Prof. Q. Kanorwala honored

Udaipur : After a successful tenure of teaching for 34 years, Professor Dr. Qamruddin Kanorwala was given an emotional farewell during his retirement function at Meera Girls' Government College. He was head of department of Urdu. He joined Government Education Services in 1977 as professor of Urdu at the Lohiya College. Since then he has been providing guidance to students of several colleges in Rajasthan. Simple living and high thinking has been the two motives of his life. With faith towards God, he has traveled to Hajj, Mecca Madina and other countries for education purposes including Yemen, Dubai, Iraq, Iran, Egypt, Jordan, Amman and Sharjah etc. All the members of the staff, professors and students were present during the retirement function in the college premises.

Remembering Bapu

Udaipur : To remember the Gandhiji's policies of peace and non violence, his influential movements like 'Dandi March' and 'Satyagraha', Bapu's philosophy of honesty & truth, Seeding Modern Public School celebrated 147th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi "The Father of Nation" with great enthusiasm and patriotic fervor. On this occasion students remembered and saluted two great leaders and patriots of India namely Lal Bahadur Shastri and Mahatma Gandhi and took an oath to follow their philosophies of truthfulness, love, courage & sacrifice for serving humanity. The little tots of class IV presented an informative dance-drama conveying the message of 'Communalism and Unity in Diversity' with great diligence and precision. The students of grade V and VI presented melodious bhajans and songs with lyrics 'Raghupati Raghav Raja Ram', 'De di hame aazadadi bina khadaq'. Charvi Bansal of grade VIII presented a talk highlighting the policies & great contribution of Mahatma Gandhi in reforming India.

celebrated Gandhi & Shastri Jayanti

Udaipur : Today is a special day for all the Indians as we mark the occasion of the birth of Mahatma Gandhi, "Father of our Nation." October 2nd is also the birth anniversary of Shri Lal Bahadur Shastri, a freedom fighter and our beloved second Prime Minister. Both the two great heroes born on this day dedicated their lives to the larger cause of the nation. The Junior Study children prepared a lovely show to celebrate the Gandhi and Shastri Jayanti. After lighting the lamp, poems were recited and speeches were made. A choir sang a song dedicated to Gandhiji. Class IV played a funny skit which brought smiles to everyone's faces. Udaipur With an aim to revitalize the Love and affection for Mahatma Gandhi and Lal Bahadur Shastri amongst the students, the Parent's Pride wing of Central Academy School, Sardarpura on Thursday celebrated their birthday in the school compound. A Ceremonial lamp was lit to start the Birth anniversary program after which the students garlanded their photographs. The principal of the wing Mansi Tikku said that the tiny toddlers recited patriotic poems, anthems and songs like Raghupati Raghav Raja Ram in the memory of the two legends who had dedicated their lives for their country and paid tribute to them. Tikku further added that on the occasion a number of kids were dressed like Gandhi and Shastri. Later the kids took a pledge to keep the city clean and green and spread the message amongst the people to not to cut trees. Besides this the kids of KG planted small saplings inside the school premises

Community Transformation

Udaipur : Ryan International School Interact Club- Rotary Heritage students did the closing ceremony of the project Soles for Souls. Students collected more than 250 pair of shoes & donated to the needy one. The project started with Rotary Club of Udaipur Heritage in September 14. The guests of the day were Former Mayor Mrs. Rajni Ji Dangi & Owner of Sojatia Jewellers Mr. Mahendra Ji Sojatia. There were more than 50 under privileged children has also witness the program. Children were gifted with 100 pair of shoes. The initiative taken by the Ryanites were highly appreciated by the Guests Mrs. Rajni Ji Dangi & Mr. Mahendra Ji Sojatia & Rotary members.

Heritage Girls School ranked third

Udaipur : Education World India School Ranking ranked Heritage Girls School situated in Eklingsji 3rd in the state and 15th in the country for better education and better boarding school for girls. Tulsi Bhatia, principal of the school, said that the rank has been given for providing remarkable services and better education and boarding for girls in a very short time.

Go Heritage Run - Udaipur' on October 18

Udaipur :

Over 1000 people are expected to participate in the 'Go Heritage Run - Udaipur' on October 18th 2015. This is a first of its kind event in Udaipur and in Rajasthan. It is being organized by GoUNESCO, in partnership with UNESCO New Delhi, Maharana of Mewar Charitable Foundation (MMCF) and HRH Group of Hotels, Udaipur. Udaipur Municipal Corporation under the leadership of District Collector Mr. Rohit Gupta, I.A.S has promised full support and cooperation to make the event a success.

The run is non-competitive and will aim to raise awareness of the unique heritage environment preserved in Udaipur. The run routes will cover historic areas of Udaipur including the iconic City Palace, Jagdish Mandir and Lake Pichola and Lake Fatehsagar, providing participants with spectacular views of Udaipur.

"GoUNESCO's online and offline activities designed to trigger conversations and appreciation of heritage is commendable. The idea of organizing fun runs to promote heritage tourism and traditional crafts is especially fresh. We at UNESCO welcome efforts such as these to promote heritage sites across India and are happy to support the Go Heritage Run - Udaipur," said Moe Chiba, Programme Specialist, Culture Sector, UNESCO New Delhi.

Mr. Lakshyaraj Singh Mewar, Trustee-MMCF, said "We welcome the first-ever Go Heritage Run in our city and wish it all success. Every citizen of Udaipur should participate in this novel way of appreciating our historic heritage city. Udaipur has many 'firsts' to its credit, this is yet another feather in our city's cap."

Ajay Reddy, founder of Go Heritage Runs said "Every one of us loves heritage, but there is a dearth of avenues for laypersons to engage with it. From our experience organizing runs at heritage site across

Home guards urge Modi, Raje for Demands

Udaipur : Hundreds of annoyed home guards in Udaipur on Wednesday sought per mission from the Prime Minister, President and chief minister to commit suicide over their irregular job status.

JS Rathore, the state president of Rajasthan Home Guard Employees Union said, following their demands to regularise their services, hundreds of them have written letters with their blood to the President, Prime Minister and chief minister. Besides writing letters, the home guards have also said that if the government did not consider their demands then they should be given permission to commit suicide, Rathore added.

Rathore further said that the home guards are only deployed during emergency situations like law and order, election and natural calamities but never appointed as permanent employees. Moreover, the Human Rights Commission had earlier favoured an order that they be appointed as permanent employees and given salaries equivalent to police. Rathore said that their protest, which they call as Rakt Kranti Camp, is a statewide campaign which started on September 1 at Jaipur and till now has been organised in 15 districts of the state.

There are over 31,000 home guard jawans in the state

All hail for Clean and natural beauty

Udaipur : "People visit Udaipur for Lakes, Ghats, gardens, and heritage structures. And Udaipur's tourism can boost only when these things are conserved properly.

This is how the tourism will flourish." These were the opinions in unison by nature lovers after Shramdaan (donation of labor) under the joint venture by Jheel Sanrakshan Samiti and Dr. Mohan Singh Mehta Memorial Trust.

Anil Mehta of Jheel Sanrakshan Samiti said the new concrete construction and all around litter on the pristine structure create blockage for tourism. "A clean Udaipur can only lead to healthy and rich tourism," said Mehta.

ACB seizes Rs 4.19L from excise inspector

Udaipur : The anti-corruption bureau sleuths on Saturday seized a whopping amount of Rs 4.19 lakh from an excise inspector, near the Gangartol plaza on the Chittorgarh-Bhilwara road.

The money reportedly was part of monthly 'bandi' from some liquor contractors, which the inspector was taking home.

The ACB had got various complaints about corrupt practices against the excise inspector, Chetan Lal, resident of Kekri, Ajmer, who is presently posted at Pratapgarh. The team had been keeping a watch on Lal for some time and on Saturday they had confirmed news that the officer was transporting a bulk amount in his car. ACB team, led by additional SP, Brijesh Soni, deputy SP, Rajeev Joshi and CI, Virendra Singh did a sudden check on Lal at the highway and found Rs 4.19 lakh in his possession.

The money has been seized and reported to the headquarters. The inspector would be served notice, seeking explanation on the source of the sum and afterwards a case would be registered accordingly, sources claimed.

Awareness rally held in Udaipur to highlight ills of Tobacco

Udaipur : M.B hospital along with Rotary Club organized a rally on Saturday morning.

According to the Deputy Superintendent of M.B hospital Dr. Ramesh Joshi more than 350 people including doctors, medical students and nursing staff participated in the anti Tobacco rally. The rally began at 10 AM and was flagged off by the District Collector Rohit Gupta.

Dr. Tarun Gupta, principal of RNT medical college Dr D.P Singh and Chairman of Rajasthan Cancer Society Dr. Rakesh Gupta and senior members of Rotary club were also present.

Dr. Joshi said that the rally started from the M.B hospital premises and by passing from the major roads of the city it ended at RNT Medical College. The participants walked with various slogans, posters and banners containing messages about the hazards caused to an individual by the consumption of Tobacco products.

In the rally, mini truck displaying around 350 Kg of tobacco products that was seized by the hospital administration in the last few months moved along that became the highlight.

24 sewing machines were provide to disabled

Udaipur : Narayan Seva Sansthan organized jointly by the Institute for Entrepreneurship and ICICI employment for disabled persons are conducting various trainings in order to free the 45-day sewing training program. Thursday culminated in the premises of the Institute at large. Free operation in various parts of the country come to the institute trained 24 trainees.

Prashant Agarwal, president of the Institute on the occasion distributed certificates to the trainees of the Institute for Entrepreneurship and self-employment from ICICI. R Sethi and Shanu Singh distributed sewing machines.

Rangoli & Extempore Speech held on Third Day of Wildlife Week

Udaipur : Wildlife Week organized by University College of Science and WWF India-Udaipur chapter, Rangoli and extempore competitions were organized on 3rd October.

Topics related to environment and wildlife were given to participants of Extempore speech, who had to present their views in 5 minutes each. Beautiful Rangolis, around theme of 'Colorful World of Birds' was appreciated by all.

Dr. Chaaya Bhatnagar gave the message of Save Trees and highlighted the importance of wildlife around us.

Accompanying her was WWF-India's Arun Soni who managed the programs. 250 students took out Wildlife Conservation Rally

A day before Wildlife Conservation Rally was carried out on the second day of the Wildlife Week organized by Forest Department, University College of Science and WWF-India Udaipur chapter. The rally with 250 students commenced from Bijli Ghar circle to Sajjanganarh Biological Park.

The rally was monitored by Deputy Forest Conservator Dr. T. Mohan Raj, Assistant Professor of Zoology Department MLSU Dr. Chaya Bhatnagar and WWF Chief officer Arun Soni.

Post rally, the students took a trip of the biological park where Dr. Satish Sharma, Sujan Singh Soni and Ganeshilal Gonthal gave scientific knowledge to all. A cleanliness campaign was also organized within the park premises by the students and officials.

In the evening, a puppet show was organized which was witnessed by 150 people followed by broadcast by Akashwani on wildlife protection & conservation.

Udaipur Haji still missing

Udaipur : Zaheer Abbas, a Haj pilgrim from Udaipur, who disappeared in the stampede at Mina in Saudi Arabia continued to be missing on Friday, even after eight days of the incident. Abbas's father Hatim Attari, who was also injured in the stampede, is trying all means to look for his son. The Saudi authorities have claimed most of the pilgrims who were lost in the incident have been found by now. Habitullah Attari, Abbas' uncle, has informed that Consulate General of India, Jeddah is rendering all possible help. Abbas is mentally challenged and hence may not be able to reach out for help. "They have been searching for my nephew at all possible places. He can communicate with his parents on y and would perhaps not be comfortable in talking to others seemed to be a reason that he is still untraceable," said Habitullah.

Rajasthan gets the award in the category of Innovation

New Delhi : Rajasthan bagged the most competitive state in the category of Innovation driven economies in India. The award function was took place at the Taj Palace Hotel, New Delhi, wherein the award was presented to the Deputy Speaker of Rajasthan assembly, Shri Rao Rajendra Singh.

The award ceremony has been organized by the Institute of Competitiveness and Mint. These are the india's most prestigious awards which has been given those Indian states who showcased a high performance and growth rate.

After the award ceremony, Shri Singh said that Rajasthan has the most well defined factor conditions, which includes administrative environment, human capacity, growth oriented labor laws and scope of innovation.

He pointed out that all business friendly steps which has been taken by the state govt., Rajasthan got positioned itself at the top in the overall economies competitiveness in the category of innovation driven economies and thus outshined in the country. Shri Singh has given invitation to all participants in the 'Resurgent Rajasthan Partnership Summit' scheduled to be held in Nov. 19-20, 2015.

Bomb alert spreads panic at bus stand

Udaipur : Commuters at the Udaipur roadways bus stand on Friday heaved a sigh of relief when a box suspected to contain a bomb turned out to be safe. Panic prevailed in the area after the staff at the stand found an unclaimed bag lying in the premises. After observing it for a couple of hours, the staff informed the police about it, following which a team of Surajpol police station reached the spot with a dog squad.