

Anil Agarwal tweeted

The Honorable Prime Minister's 'Make In India' gained fruition over the course of the year, as companies have begun to commit manufacturing products, from smartphones to fighter jets. The uniqueness of 'Make in India' lies in its emphasis on quality manufacturing, making the country the first choice for technology MNCs to set up off-shore R&D centers.

India has jumped 12 places on the global Ease of Doing Business Index. Foreign Direct Investment has increased incrementally by 35%, indicating the scope that the country offers and India has become the fastest growing economy in the world.

Rural electrification, road construction, industrial corridors, developing infrastructure for internet connectivity are crucial for the enterprises of tomorrow to operate. Public projects need a great deal of metals and minerals to fructify. Relying on imports for steel, aluminium or copper can lead to delays, instability and cost overruns.

We believe for a self-sufficient India. The Government must continue its reforms in the extractive sector. 'Find in India, Mine in India' can be the perfect podium to propagate and spur investment in the natural resources space. India's self-sufficiency in the natural resources sector has the capacity to create millions of employment opportunities. This will help eradicate poverty and empower our communities, ensuring our economic and social development.

Resolution 2016

New year has started and all of us are ready to welcome this year with new hopes and opportunities. War and violence continued last year in many parts of the world. France attack is an alarm that no European country is safe now.

What would be our new year resolution this year then?

We work for our families and we earn money to make our life comfortable but this is not the actual mission for what we have taken birth on this planet. Our prime goal must be to do every possible effort to make this world safe and peaceful.

Our community and society need a network of peace which is tightly woven in human ties and emotions. Our vision should be broad. When terrorists are fighting to separate us in the name of hatred and religions, we must practice to raise our voice against cruelty and hatred. A beautiful world is not created by facilities and luxuries, it is created with humanity and peace. We should try to fight all evils that are present in our society. Its not important that how many determinations one made on first day of new year but it is really important to work hard to fulfill those dreams. Establishing peace is not an easy task but our spirits and courage to transform our work places and environment can make impossible into possible.

Resolution 2016 is to spread peace and happiness in our society. No fights for religions and stupid comments on castes can bring a big change in society. I request our youth to come forward and break the chains of castism and superstitions. We will definitely be able to bring peace in this world by taking these small steps.

Pankaj Patel is New Chairman of IIMU

Shilpgram Utsav-2015...

The most awaited Festival of Udaipur is, Shilpgram Utsav as it belongs to every citizen of Udaipur. Even the people living in neighboring areas throng Shilpgram during last ten days of December every year to experience a mega festival which show cases the rich cultural heritage of India. Shilpgram becomes mini India during this Ten days Mega event.

Folk, Tribal and Indigenous artistes from various states of India present the glimpses of their regional cultural heritage. Viewers find it as most entertaining and refreshing cultural festival of Udaipur. For ten days even the regular visitors to Shilpgram find difference in performances as the organizers keep changing either the art forms or the groups. This was experienced in Bhopal, Gotipua and Langa Manganiyar musicians. Some new groups like 'Singhara and Bajashal dances' from Odisha, Pole Mallakhamb from Maharashtra, Jugad Band from New Delhi were successful. The other groups like Raee Dance from Bundelkhand, M.P., Bihu from Assam, Kargham form Tamilnadu, Bhanga from Punjab, Ghumar from Haryana, Mayur dance from U.P., Pung Dhol Dholak Cholam as well as Thangta & Choirol Jagoi (Stick dance) from Manipur, Lawni from Maharashtra, Seharaya Swang from Baran, Rajasthan, Samai/Dehni dance from Goa and Dangi Holi & Sidi Dhamal from Gujarat put their best on stage to allure viewers. As a part of humor, Mimicry artistes from Ahmadabad, Comedy skit from Jaipur and Bahurupi artistes from Gujarat and Rajasthan were also received well. Shilpgram's stage is not only.

This time Gujarat, Goa, Maharashtra and Rajasthan days were celebrated with the help of respective state governments. The most exciting item "JHANKAR" is always a treat to the audience. This time ZHANKAR (Symphony) included morchang, algoza, murli, dholak, bhapaang, dhol, sarangi, chautara, ghada, dhoom dhadak, thali and khadtal from Rajasthan, dholki, tune, dimdi from Maharashtra, mugarmar, tasha, musendo, sur, kahalya, dhol from Gujarat, ghumat, tasho, kansalem from Goa, nishan, dhol, ghumra, mahuri from

vilas janve

Odisha, pungs, dhols and dholaks from Manipur, penpa, gagana, bihu dhols, bahi (flute) from Assam, nagada, dhol and shehnai from West Bengal, algoza, bhangda dhol and chimta from Punjab, naad swaram, pumbai and thavil form Tamilnadu. All the instruments having their regional identity and sound mingled gracefully to create a melodious music. Entire amphitheater was either tapping or swinging during Jhankar.

It is a feast for Photographers as they get a wide range of art forms with variety of costume, make up, ornaments and colors. Most of the spectators use their mobile cameras to capture the happy moments and share with their friends. People enjoy folk songs like "Tarr" and "Ram Nam Urgent" even they heard many a times. That is the significance of this festival as it involves audience of all age. Sitting together and watching together gives great feeling.

I was lucky to have Himani Dixit Joshi as my co host to present the treasure for ten days. Our style was very informal so that spectators get full idea of the dance or music number coming on stage. Our interactive compering was heard with full patience which was a positive sign. This way the audience develops love and honor towards the performing artistes.

We were fortunate to be a live link between the artistes and the audience. We had a rich experience of sharing significance of art forms that is enjoying ourselves and spreading happiness among the audience. Shilpgram's stage is not only a place of entertainment but a place of education also. We observe and experience the vibrant colors of our culture, we sing with singers we swing with dancers and feel proud of our Country.

We look forward to such Mega events which bring us closure to our age old rich traditions and cultural heritage. Thanks to Mr. Mohammad Furqan Khan, the Director of West Zone Cultural Centre, Udaipur and his precious team for organizing ... "SHILPGRAM UTSAV-2015".

Teachers Awaken, Addiction an "Ice Berg"

Like an ice in the sea a very small part of that is visible on the surface of the sea water which is known as "Ice Berg" but a major part of this ice lies hidden under the sea water. Similarly the addiction which is spreading in the society is also visible as an Ice berg. This is not visible because still it is a social stigma which prevents its spread in the society. We do not know extant of the enormity of the addiction.

This was told by the Pani Parvayaran Puruskar Award 2015 winner & the person who is engaged in the awareness of De-Addiction & Roof Top Rain water harvesting from last two decades Dr. P.C. Jain & Medical & Social Practitioner of Udaipur among the Refresher course of Mathematics Teachers which is Continuing in the Govt. Guru Govind Singh Sr. sec School near Bhupal Stadium, Udaipur. He appealed the teachers to be the "Role Models" for the students by not using any kind of addictive substance & be away from the Substance Abuse.

Citing the reasons for the spreading of Addiction he told about 12 "F" he framed like Family, Friends, Fashion, Freedom, Free Availability of the substance to be Abused.

As how to identify the addictive students, he gave some hints for that like to observed among them as Frequent change of the friends, change in the behavior, Untidy dressing, uncombed hair, failing in the course in which he/she was perfect leads to suspicion for substance abuse (Addiction).

Dr Jain was about worried the increase abuse of Tobacco, Gutkha, Supari in the lower classes in the schools. He advised the teachers to perform "Four finger Test" to identify these cases.

He narrated some of the real stories which shows the extant of the spread among the students & the society. Talking about his observation during his U.S.A. & comparison he said that 50% of the mouth cancer is common in our country because of smokeless tobacco & Gutkha.

How the addiction is more harmful for the women as compared the men he told that because of the difference in the body structure & Hormones any kind of substance abuse is more harmful for them. Also they have to give child birth & during the period of pregnancy this addiction badly affects the formation of the body structure of the child leading many to many fetal abnormalities.

How to how de addict he advised to talk to such student in privacy & with sympathy & assist him to get rid of this addiction. In the end of his 281 th presentation one De addiction (Nasha Geet) poem was recited with dancing giving the advise to all to leave all kind of addiction. (Nasha ne chodo rae) the principal Mr. Bheru Lal teli thanked Dr P.C. Jain & Mr Mohammed Iqbal Sheikh (Training Incharge) Introduced him.
