The IIHMR University's School of Rural Management invited over 55 students to their campus of three batches. The event was graced by the faculty members such as Dr. SD Gupta, President, IIHMR University, Dr. Goutam Sadhu, Dean School of Rural Management, IIHMR University, Col (Dr.) Ashok Kaushik Dean Student Affairs and Dr. Alok Mathur, Associate Professor, were present on the dais.

Dr. SD Gupta, President, IIHMR University said, "I am overwhelmed to see our students back in their institution where they have spent their years to make a successful career. The alumni meet is the beginning of a new relationship between the institution and the students who have graduated and developed their careers. I am extremely impressed with their growth and their vivid experience that they have acquired post their graduation in a short time span. The students have evolved as personnel's and I see them growing, articulating and this helps me to continue contributing to rural management as a programme at The IIHMR University. The MBA Rural Management has helped our students to directly be in touch with the grass root level which has initially evolved our students to what they are today. We at The IIHMR University believe in experiential learning which is a part of the course curriculum and has also helped our students to directly interact with the people and regions which needed development. We take pride in announcing that our students today are associated with organizations such as Save the Children, Reliance Foundation, HCL and many Government associations which have helped them to uplift the lives and the regions which needed contribution from skilled workforce that has been produced by The IIHMR University today."

Dr. Goutam Sadhu, Dean School of Rural Management, IIHMR University, Jaipur said, "We are delighted to reconnect and celebrate the sense of togetherness with our alumni. It has always been nostalgic for all of us to go back the memory lane and visit our school and college and live the same life just for a day. We strongly believe that reconnecting with your roots always proves to be a very beneficial experience for all of us as it helps us to reconnect with our friends or batch mates and share their experiences which help us revive ourselves and also learn from their practical experience."

The IIHMR University's

School of Rural Management on the occasion of The Rural Management Alumni Meet 2016 will see various activities such as canvas painting by alumni and the faculty, guest lectures, extra-curricular activities, experience sharing sessions, guest lectures, ramp walking and various interactive sessions over a span of two days i.e. between 20th February, 2016 to 21st February, 2016. Kokilaben Hospital launches Department for Developmental Disorders Udaipur : In Maharashtra over more than 9% of India's population; unfortunately it is also one of the five largest states with people with disabilities in India. The population of children between 0-6 years old is approximately 1.33 crore. Out of these (as per the incidence rate of 10%), 13 lakh children are likely to have one or more forms of disabilities. Hence, there is an urgent need to prevent disabilities and rehabilitate children with special needs.

There is scientific evidence to indicate that disabilities can be prevented through early intervention and the chances of a child developing a severe disability can be minimised through rehabilitation. The goal of pediatric rehabilitation is to limit the physiological and psychological effects of developmental disorders such as cerebral palsy, autism and ADHD, and to improve overall mobility and abilities to perform everyday activities.

Neurodevelopmental therapy is an integral part of treatment for all the above conditions. It has to be comprehensive as each affected child is unique and needs multiples professionals to be involved.

Speaking at the inaugural ceremony, Mrs Tina Ambani, Chairperson, Kokilaben Hospital, said, "Our children are the building blocks of the future, each one is a vital thread in the nation's fabric and their potential must be recognised and realised. For children with neurodevelopmental disorders, an enabling environment becomes all the more imperative. Unfortunately, in India, those with special needs largely remain marginalised and excluded, even invisible.

form are Anup Jalota, Suresh Wadkar, Talat Aziz, Anuradha Paudwal, Richa Sharma, Madhusree, Shailaja Subramaniam and Kshiti Tarey. Global Advertisers Group Company MM Mithaiwala is the official catering partner for the prestigious event.
