UCCI EXCELLENCE AWARD - 2018

The occasion was 53rd foundation day of Udaipur Chamber of Commerce and Industry and the state level industrialists and businessmen were given awards for their contribution towards the business and industry. Business drives the economy which helps the country grow further and these industrialists work really hard to make difficult things happen. In an event that covered entire state, 20 companies were shortlisted from Udaipur. The UCCI Excellence awards were given by noted business tycoon Vikram Shrikant Kirloskar. Kirloskar also graced the ceremony as the Chief Guest. The program was held in the PP Singhal auditorium of the UCCI Bhawan at Udaipur. Salil Singhal of PI Industries was the special guest of the ceremony.

Most of the businesses in the city of Udaipur fall in the category of family business. The new generations take the guidance and legacy from the senior members and then try to add something innovative to make the business more vibrant. This is today just not a way to boost the business but it also the way to fight the cut-throat competition out there in the market. Kirloskar, who is the founder of Toyota Kirloskar Motor Private Limited, while addressing the new age industrialists and business persons, shared the nitty gritty about the inception of joint ventures.

President of the Udaipur Chamber of Commerce and Industry Hansraj Chaudhary apprised that many industrialists from Udaipur and across Rajasthan and participated in the ceremony. "Officials from Government department of various eight districts including Udaipur, Rajsamand, Bhilwara, Chittorgarh, Pratapgarh, Banswara, Dungarpur, Sirohi, Kota, Bundi, Jhalawar, and Ajmer attended the ceremony,"

The Contest for various categories among the companies proved to be tight and tough. The overall feeling was that all the companies had done a great job and everyone deserved one award or the other but as one had to be declared the winner, the procedure was fulfilled.
