Professional Women's Walk

More than 100 professional women's from Udaipur walked on a walk at Fatah Sagar Pal on Sunday morning. This event was organized in collaboration with Vital Voices, a voluntary organization founded by the Global Woman Mentors Forum and Hillary Clinton. At the beginning of the morning 8 o'clock in the morning, Higher Education Minister Kiran Maheshwari, Nivrutti Kumari Mewar, founder president of the women advisory forum Archana Surana, Executive president of Udaipur Dr. Anita Bhandari, famous swimmer Gaurvi Singhvi, Subh Sanghvi blew the balloon. After this, all the ladies have a walk on the sails. It may be recalled that more than 200 professional women are members of the Women Mentors Forum. Which is helping women from various areas together and motivating each other? This forum works to promote leadership among women, dealing with their personal and professional challenges.

Melodious Dhrupad Vocal Recital at The City Palace

Udaipur (VilasJanve) :- At Manek Chowk of The City Palace, Udaipur, music lovers enjoyed most melodious Dhrupad vocal recital by noted Mallick Brothers (Prashant Mallick and Nishant Mallick) of Darbhanga Gharana. This was organized on the auspicious occasion of the Maharana Mewar Foundation 36th Annual Awards Distribution Ceremony-2018. Mallick Brothers started concert with very old evening Raag Shree. Further Bandish 'Jaake mrig chhal, take gale rudra maal' was rendered in Chautal (twelve beats) with deep intricacy and high precision in Laykari. Mallick brothers have mastered the ancient style of singing with rigorous Riyaz and attained high respect for their singing. Their composition 'Sur nar rishi muni' in Raag Charukeshi was a rare treat. They were accurately accompanied by Mrinal Mohan Upadhyay on Pakhawaj, Shriji Arvind Singh Mewar, Chairman and Managing Trustee, Maharana of Mewar Charitable Foundation honored artists by presenting bouquet and Saropav.

"Manek Chowk Echoed in the Honour of Wisdom"

(Arushi Vyas)The land of gallantry and sacrifice: Mewar has been a podium for such events which connect the dots of incredible present with unwavering history.

With the rising moon on the evening of 11th March at Manek Chowk between the walls of enormous City Palace, Udaipur witnessed 36th Maharana Mewar Foundation Annual Awards Ceremony. By piloting the resilient legacy of the palace and its protocols, 76th custodian of Mewar Shriji Arvind Singh Mewar of Udaipur, Chairman and Managing Trustee, MMCF, ushered another evening to honour and recognize personages from fields like art, culture, sports, literature, academics, etc. Shriji Arvind Singhji added, "Foundation seeks utmost gratification in keeping the light of faith illuminated by honouring and recognizing the efforts and life of laudable people of this world."

On the propitious occasion of the 36th edition of annual award ceremony, event started with niceties on the International Award named after Colonel James Tod, to pay tribute to the work of a foreign national who has made an enduring contribution through his exceptional work keeping in line with the values and dignity of the region of Mewar. Prof. John Stratton Hawley, Columbia University bagged the International award this year. In line, Ms. Suhasini Haidar, Editor, The Hindu received the Haldighati Award for her notable work in awakening society through the medium of journalism for more than two decades.

Under the lustrous light of Palace standing robustly, Pandit Shree Narendra Mishra, official spokesperson - MMCF, filled the air with his heroic poems of courage, valor and sacrifice witnessed by the land of Panna, Padmini and Pratap.

Hakim Khan Sur Award devised to honor the work of permanent value for the cause of national integration was awarded to Dr. E. Sreedharan. In a particular order, Maharana

Udai Singh award was presented to Mr. Gafarbhai Qureshi; Panna Dhari Award to Mr. Salim Gafur Sheikh and Mr. Harsh Desai; Maharishi Harit Rashi Award to Dr. Sandeep Joshi and Pandit (Dr.) Chandrakant Purohit (Munshi); Maharana Mewar Award to Ms. Raspreet Sidhu, Prof. Satyavrat Shastri and Mr. Abid
