

Value of Real Education

Education is not only studying, doing job, marrying, bringing up family and taking care of our kids. It is journey from WE AS A KID TO OUR KIDS. But this is not all life and education. The real education is that which prepares you for the life. It makes you learn, cultivate and develop the healthy values of life. The education must make you competent enough to cross the obstacles, hardships and hurdles of life. When we talk of education it is not four walls classroom education but the EDUCATION FOR LIFE. THE REAL EDUCATION IS A JOURNEY FROM CONVERTING THE HUMAN BEING INTO BEING HUMAN. Unless the education makes you a good human being it is of no use. The real education not only imparts you knowledge but the wisdom too. Only wisdom takes you ahead in life. If you navigate smoothly in your life then only you seem to be really educated. Real education develops life skills. One must be able to manage the life efficiently and effectively. It does not mean that there will never be any problems but one will come out safely out of that if wisdom applied.

We cannot change the roads of life which may be hard, rough and tough but there are very few people who have the skills to cross such roads too by their intellect. One can explore new paths of life. One can walk on less traveled and untraveled roads too. The real education is holistic one which not only develops and takes care of your body but mind, heart and soul too. The real education must lead to one's wellness, well-being and welfare (WWW). It must lead to eminence, expertise and excellence (EEE). It must lead to development of Inventive, innovative and intuitive (III) skills.

The real education must lead to TOTAL health, happiness, peace and contentment in life. It must lead to your spiritual advancement. MATERIAL SUCCESS IS NO GUARANTEE TO PEACE & HAPPINESS. As some people may attain success by material education.

Whether they will pass / qualify the examination of life? Real education will develop the values and traits of goodness and niceness, compassion & love. One must have a balanced, aligned, harmonious, inclusive, secular approach to life in the truest spirit.

At the core of this issue is how education is being defined and applied in regard to behavioral change. The terms education and knowledge are often thought of interchangeably. However, education is a comprehensive term that can be defined as "the process of receiving or giving systematic instruction" or as "an enlightening experience," whereas knowledge is defined as "facts, information, and skills acquired by a person through experience or education." Knowledge is the desired outcome of education. As the definition suggests, there are multiple types of knowledge: general knowledge or information, knowledge that increases personal awareness and knowledge that increases skills.

For education to increase awareness, it must provide an individual with a better understanding of the personal relevance of the information. Providing general knowledge will not do that. Educating individuals on the definition and consequences of obesity is not likely to lead to behavior change.

Behavior change is more likely if education increases individuals' awareness that they suffer from obesity and are personally experiencing consequences of obesity. Tailored education is necessary to increase awareness because tailoring ensures that the information is relevant to the individual. Tailored education is also more likely to include explanation on why the information is pertinent specifically to the individual.

Education is one of the most critical determinants of success for both individuals and society. Individuals who are highly educated earn more, are healthier, and are more likely to contribute to civic organizations, whereas individuals with lower amounts of education are more likely to commit crimes, suffer unemployment, default on loans, and be incarcerated. As such, education is associated with economic growth and progress and is considered one of the main sources of prosperity for both individuals and nations.

XVII Annual Conference of Rajasthan Association for Studies in English on 28-29 November, 2020

XVII Annual Conference of Rajasthan Association for Studies in English will be held on 28-29 Nov. 2020. The theme of the conference is Plurality is Unity: Exploring Humanity and Celebrating Individual Identities through Literature in Translation.

The conference will be held this year in the form of a webinar. General Secretary of the Association Dr. K.S. Kang, Principal, Maharana Pratap Government PG College told that every year the Association organizes conferences at some part of Rajasthan. This year due to Covid-19 it has been decided to have it in a webinar form. The invite for the conference has been floated and people have started registering for participation. The inaugural session will be chaired by Prof. Rajul Bhargava, President of the Association. Organizing Secretary of the conference, Dr. Rajshree Ranawat, J.N.Vyas University, Jodhpur told that scholars from all over India and also from abroad will join this conference. Vice President of the Association Prof. H.S. Chandalia told that the theme of the conference is very relevant to the present times. Describing the theme he said that Globalization ushered in an era of fear of dispossession of individual spaces leading to a strange kind of imposition of uniformity in all spheres of life. It was becoming visible how a super power was using its entire means to demean all other entities and establish a hegemonic control over peoples and countries. Over the years this has percolated down to smaller countries and the talk of national identities as central to political discourse is becoming evident. One nation, one language, one culture, one ideology and one party seem to be becoming the new normal. The pandemic also seems to have been used by the power centers to consolidate their positions and curb the alternative voices.

The world, however, has never been so in the past. This new normal is not normal. Plurality is normal. Existence of multiple voices, multiple choices, numerous colours and varied fragrances make a world normal. Small things matter. Their presence makes the big ones big.

The conference will focus on some of these issues on the basis of literature in Translation. This has been chosen as the domain of the conference because translation brings people together by making them available literature which is otherwise inaccessible. This also enables one to know another culture and respect it. Translation manifests respecting the other. One attempts translation from one language to another only when (s)he loves the two languages and wishes to engage with them.
