Majestic Baba Shyam Temple to Grace Udaipur - A New Historical Chapter Unfolds

Udaipur, the enchanting city known for its beauty, is set to witness a momentous event as a grand temple dedicated to Baba Shyam, also known as Baba Khatushyam, is soon to be erected on the Chittorgarh Highway, just 10 kilometers from the city.

The unveiling of the temple model during the auspicious Shri Shyam Sawan Utsav on 22nd July at Black 27 Resort in Bhuvana marks the beginning of this extraordinary endeavor.

During a press conference, the trustees of the Shri Shyam Seva Trust revealed exciting details about the temple's construction and plans for the temple complex.

Over one lakh square feet of land has been reserved for the grand temple, which not only includes the shrine of Baba Khatushyam but also houses temples of Rani Sati Dadi, Lord Bholenath, Lord Ganesha, and Lord Hanuman.

Of particular significance is the temple dedicated to Rani Sati Dadi, the first of its kind in the Udaipur region, adding to the splendor of the complex. The entire temple structure will be crafted using the pristine white marble of Ambaji, adding to its grandeur.

The thoughtful planning of the temple complex extends beyond the main temple. Additional facilities such as a Dharamshala (guesthouse), goshala (cow shelter), and a beautiful garden will be created on the reserved land, enhancing the overall spiritual experience for visitors. Moreover, in a bid to accommodate devoted followers who wish to serve Baba Shyam by staying close to the temple, a housing colony spanning three lakh square feet is planned nearby. The temple's model will be inaugurated during the Jhoolotsav event at Black 27 Resort, graced by the presence of Acharya Brijeshji Maharaj of Shridham Vrindavan on 22nd July at 7 PM.

The ensuing devotional

evening promises to be a soul-stirring experience, featuring esteemed bhajan artists like Vivek Sharma from Kolkata, whose performances accompanied by fragrant mogra flowers will evoke memories of the Banke Bihari Mandir in Vrindavan. The melodious voice of Manish Ghiwala from Jaipur, along with his team and the talented little master Rehansh, is sure to captivate the audience. Local artists, including Anil Anand Sharma, Lata Soni, Pratiksha Maheshwari, Jamanashankar Lohar, Itisha Goyal, Anjali Acharya, and Bhawana Sharma, will also grace the event with their mesmerizing performances.

The trustees have assured that every arrangement, including a waterproof dome, is being meticulously planned to ensure that devotees remain undeterred by rain during the festivities. The construction of the temple and the entire event is being organized through public cooperation, a collective effort symbolizing the unity of devotees. The trustees envision the temple as a significant pilgrimage destination, akin to the Banke Bihari Mandir in Vrindavan, drawing devotees and visitors alike to experience its divine aura and spiritual essence. As the construction progresses, Udaipur is poised to embrace another landmark of reverence and architectural splendor.
