Rajasthan CM Bhajan Lal Sharma Expresses Confidence in BJP's Victory in Delhi

East Delhi Rally

Addressing a gathering at Jalebi Chowk in East Delhi on Sunday, Rajasthan Chief Minister Bhajan Lal Sharma expressed confidence in the Bharatiya Janata Party's (BJP) victory in the upcoming elections.

Prime Ministerial Leadership

Sharma emphasized the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, stating that the BJP, under his guidance, is poised to secure over 400 seats nationally and sweep all seven seats in Delhi.

Achievements of Modi Government

Highlighting the developmental initiatives undertaken by the Modi government since 2014, Sharma cited schemes for the welfare of the poor, massive toilet construction projects, and the Jal Jeevan Mission to provide piped water to every household.

Criticism of Opposition

Sharma criticized the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) and Congress for making false promises and engaging in corruption, contrasting their actions with the BJP's commitment to serving the poor,

Appeal to Voters

He urged the people of Delhi to support BJP candidate Harsh Malhotra and assured that his victory would strengthen Prime Minister Modi's position and lead to significant electoral gains for the party.

Prediction and Confidence

Sharma predicted BJP's

victory on all seven Lok Sabha seats in Delhi and expressed confidence in achieving a majority of over 400 seats nationally.

Blessings and Support

During the event, Sharma received blessings from Sadhvi Anima Thana and Sadhvi Sangita Thana, emphasizing the strong support from the Rajasthani diaspora and Jain community.

Free Three-Day National Workshop on Plant-Based Nutrition by VegVoyage Foundation

Udaipur: VegVoyage Foundation, in collaboration with the Hotel and Tourism Management Department of Mohan Lal Sukhadia University, organized a one-day workshop today at the University's Guest House.

The inaugural session of the workshop was graced by the presence of Professor Sunita Mishra, Vice-Chancellor of Mohan Lal Sukhadia University, as the chief guest, and Bhavnar Baisa Mohalakshika Kumari Mevad of Udaipur as the distinguished guest.

Professor Mishra shed light on the significance of plant-based cuisine and its nutritional impact on health, emphasizing the need to understand the technical aspects of its nutrition value and its importance in daily calorie intake for human life. She stressed the importance of incorporating vegan products in place of dairy products for maintaining one's health.

Bhavnar Baisa Mohalakshika Kumari Mevad congratulated the organizers of this plant-based cuisine workshop and highlighted its timeliness, indicating that it's going to be a trend in the near future.

Professor Meera Mathur, Director of the Management Studies Department, expressed that this workshop will be a milestone in educating students about plant-based cuisine specialization.

R.K. Singh, Co-founder of VegVoyage, welcomed the guests and conducted the program.

At the end of the program, Professor Hanuman Prasad, Director of Curriculum at the Hotel and Tourism Management Department of Mohan Lal Sukhadia University, thanked the guests and encouraged students to not only use plant-based cuisine abundantly for their health but also to raise awareness about it among the general public, which would not only benefit health but also contribute to environmental balance.

About 150 students from various hotel and tourism management institutions in Udaipur participated in this workshop. Additionally, representatives from various organizations such as Vegan Travel Asia, Thrive, UNICEF, and Youth for Water Plus also provided significant support to the event

Udaipur: Exploring New Horizons in Tourism

In a recent interview, Saurabh Rai Rathore, a resident of Udaipur, shared insights on the potential areas for tourism expansion in the city. Rathore, who secured the 128th rank in the Indian Forest Services (IFS) examination, shed light on the untapped opportunities in rural and bicycle tourism.

With a remarkable journey that saw him appearing for the UPSC prelims five times before finally achieving success, Rathore's story is one of resilience and determination. Rejecting setbacks with a positive attitude, he persisted in his studies for eight hours daily, eventually securing success on his sixth attempt. What's truly remarkable is Rathore's achievement without any coaching, relying solely on his dedication and hard work. Born and raised in Udaipur, Rathore's commitment to his community is evident. Alongside his UPSC preparations, he initiated a startup aimed at assisting local farmers in 2017 after completing his Bachelor's in Computer Science. Despite pursuing freelancing opportunities and navigating the UPSC exams, Rathore remained rooted in his hometown, eschewing the allure of coaching centers in Delhi or Jaipur. His motivation, he shares, stemmed from his grandfather, a farmer whose relentless toil inspired Rathore from a young age. Rathore's journey underscores the belief that success is the culmination of hard work and perseverance, with no shortcuts to achieving one's goals. Looking forward, Udaipur stands poised to embrace new dimensions in tourism. Rural tourism offers a glimpse into the authentic rural life, while bicycle tours promise serene encounters with nature's bounty. Additionally, agritourism initiatives could empower local farmers economically while preserving their traditional way of life. As Udaipur charts its course towards tourism diversification, Rathore's story serves as a beacon of hope, showcasing the potential for individuals to make a difference in their communities through passion and persistence.
