Udaipur: Grand Continent Hotels Limited inaugurated its new luxury property, "Grand Continent - A Luxury Collection, Udaipur," on Saturday with great grandeur.

Grand Continent – A Luxury Collection Inaugurated in Udaipur

The ribbon-cutting ceremony was performed by Ramesh Siva, Founder and Managing Director; Vidya Ramesh, Director; Mithun Jayaraman, CFO; Abhijeet Srivastava, COO; and Dharmal Dembla, social worker and landowner. The event was also graced by Sanjay Kumar Das, President of Grand Continent Hotels Limited; Ankush Katwal, General Manager, Grand Continent Udaipur; Vishal Dembla, and Preet Dembla.

Expressing his delight, Ramesh Siva said that the launch of the 25th hotel under the Grand Continent banner in Udaipur marks a significant milestone for the group. Designed with the modern traveler's comfort, expectations, and luxury in mind, this new property aims to provide guests with world-class hospitality, relaxation, and style. He added that this is the first offering under the "Luxury" hospitality segment of the Grand Continent brand, crafted to blend elegance, comfort, and exceptional service for both domestic and international guests.

Located in Shobhagpura, the hotel houses 103 elegantly designed rooms across five categories—from Presidential Suites to Deluxe Rooms—all equipped with state-of-the-art amenities. Its proximity to Udaipur's major tourist attractions enhances its appeal for leisure travelers while contributing to the city's rapidly evolving hospitality landscape.

The property also features a rooftop swimming pool and dining area, offering an unforgettable experience for both tourists and locals.

The all-day dining multi-cuisine restaurant serves a wide range of global delicacies along with traditional Rajasthani specialties. For business and social events, the hotel offers two modern venues, including a state-of-the-art boardroom and meeting room equipped with advanced audio-visual technology—ideal for conferences, events, and weddings.

Founded in 2011 by Ramesh Siva, Grand Continent Hotels Limited has grown into a dynamic hospitality enterprise with over 1,400 rooms across 25 properties in 12 major Indian cities. With more than three decades of experience in the hospitality sector, Ramesh Siva continues to lead the group with vision to create distinctive spaces that cater to the diverse needs of business and leisure travelers alike.

AIMS Students Raise Awareness Through Plays on Water and Addiction

Udaipur: First-year students at the American Institute of Medical Sciences (AIMS) participated in two thought-provoking plays, "Barbad Pani, Khatam Kahani" (Wasted Water, Ended Story) and "Nashe Ke 12 Haath" (12 Hands of Addiction), directed by senior physician Dr. P. C. Jain, a veteran in water conservation and substance-abuse prevention.

The program opened with the Aarti of the Water Kalash, followed by the water-themed play depicting protests against factory groundwater pollution. Students highlighted the concept of "invisible water", revealing the enormous water footprint of everyday items like rice, jeans, sarees, chocolates, and mobile phones, and encouraged mindful consumption.

The second play addressed substance abuse, using twelve symbolic hands to represent various addictions. Dr. Jain highlighted the dangers of alcohol, tobacco, drugs, and mobile addiction, linking them to physical, mental, and social issues. He encouraged daily digital fasting and responsible habits.

The program concluded with a collaborative Garba performance, reinforcing awareness about addiction. Students pledged to avoid all forms of substance abuse. The event was coordinated by Rahul Sharma, with the vote of thanks by Principal Vinay Joshi, and performances by Jahnuvi Kakhani, Aditri Rohtagi, Shakib Ali, Tanishk Jain, and others.
